

Across the USA

---

NEWS from every state

---

Michigan: Kalamazoo — Cleanup of sediments contaminated with PCBs continues along parts of the Kalamazoo River. The work includes the capping of a landfill and removing contamination hot spots at Portage Creek. Kalamazoo River Watershed Council president Steven Hamilton said the "biggest challenge for restoration" is the polychlorinated biphenyls in the sediments. The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency is helping remove the contaminants.

---